

Friedl Weiss

Free Movement of Persons in EU Law

Bratislavská vysoká škola práva

February-March 2011

Syllabus

Univ.Prof. Dr. Friedl Weiss
University of Vienna

I. Introduction	.....
1. General Introduction	.....
2. Internal Market	.....
3. Scope of free movement of persons	.....
4. Transitional arrangements after the enlargement	.....
5. Some basic legal provisions	.....
A. Treaty provisions	.....
B. Some examples of secondary legislation	.....
6. Principle of non-discrimination	.....
7. The prohibition of restrictions	.....
8. Competence in the field of free movement	.....
9. Schengen Agreements	.....
II. Union Citizenship	.....
1. Introduction	.....
2. Historic Development up to the Maastricht Treaty	.....
3. Provisions	.....
A. Legal Provisions	.....
B. Rights	.....
C. Enforcement	.....
D. Direct effect of Art 21(1) TFEU	.....
E. Preconditions for the enjoyment of and restrictions on the rights of free movement and residence	.....
F. Entitlement to certain social advantages	.....
4. The Residence Directive (Directive 2004/38/EC)	.....
A. Historical and Political Background	.....
B. Graduated Approach	.....
C. Other rights granted by the Residence Directive	.....
D. Rights of Family Members	.....
III. Free Movement of Workers	.....
1. Legal Provisions	.....
A. Primary law	.....
B. Important secondary legislation	.....
2. Concept of “worker”	.....
A. The essential features of a “worker”	.....
B. Job seekers	.....
3. Scope of Free Movement of Workers	.....
4. Exceptions	.....
A. Public Policy and Public Security	.....
B. Public Health	.....
C. Exception for employment in the public service	.....
D. The prohibition of restrictions and the justification by overriding requirements of the general interest	.....
5. Rights of workers	.....
A. Rights of workers and their families in regard to documents	.....

6. Regulation 1612/68 .....
A. Eligibility for employment (Title I).....
B. Title II: Equality of Treatment in Employment.....
C. Social Advantages .....
D. Tax Advantages.....
E. Collective Agreements.....
F. Trade Union Rights.....
G. Housing .....
H. Title III: Workers' families .....
I. Right to remain after employment .....
J. Educational Rights.....
IV. Right of Establishment.....
1. Legal Provisions .....
A. Primary Law .....
B. Secondary Legislation .....
2. Definition of Establishment .....
3. Distinction Establishment – Services.....
4. Direct effect of Art 49 TFEU .....
5. Establishment of Individuals .....
A. Right to establish a branch office .....
B. Recognition of qualifications.....
6. The Professional Qualifications Directive (2005/36/EC) .....
A. Historical and political background .....
B. Directive 2005/36/EC – General Informations.....
C. Provisions in regard to individuals who establish themselves in another Member State .....
D. Provisions on service providers.....
7. Establishment of Companies.....
8. Exceptions to freedom of establishment .....
A. Public policy, public security, public health .....
B. Exercise of official authority .....
V. Freedom to provide and receive services.....
1. Legal Provisions.....
A. Primary law: Arts 56 – 62 TFEU .....
B. Examples of secondary legislation .....
2. Definition of Services.....
A. Examples of services .....
B. Cross-border element.....
C. Remuneration.....
D. Self-employed persons .....
E. Distinction between goods and services .....
3. Direct effect of Art 56 TFEU .....
4. Freedom to receive services .....

5. Prohibited restrictions .....
A. Prohibition of requirement of establishment .....
B. Prohibition of discrimination .....
6. Services Directive .....
A. Political and Historical Background .....
B. Material scope .....
C. Personal scope .....
D. Major provisions in regard to establishment .....
E. Major provisions in regard to services .....
F. Points of single contact .....
7. Posted Workers .....
A. Political and Historical Background .....
B. Posted Workers Directive – General Information .....
8. Justifications for restrictions of freedom to provide services .....	